

THE PLEIN-AIR EXPERIENCE

To successfully paint out-of-doors is exhilarating, but it requires knowledge, a plan, and skills to successfully capture nature's ever-changing moods.

I'm pleased to offer two classes to provide these essentials for painting directly from nature. Both classes offer a clear approach to the subject, with my own demonstrations, critiques, and plenty of teacher-student interaction. I do hope you can join me. You won't paint the same way again, and I promise it will be memorable!

-Mark Norseth
